

JUDICIAL PROFILE

Cari A. Harrison was appointed to the bench in May 2001 and is assigned to the Civil Department. She received her undergraduate degree in education from Arizona State University in 1981 and a law degree in 1984 from the University of Arizona College of Law. After graduation she went into private practice, specializing in insurance defense work. In 1987, she joined the Arizona Attorney General's Office, focused primarily on defending the State of Arizona in cases involving significant personal injury or death.

Judge Harrison serves the community as a Literacy Volunteers Tutor and parent representative on the Madison Heights Elementary School Site Based Management Team. She is a founding member of the Horace Rumpole Inn of Court, Arizona Association of Defense Counsel and the Arizona Women Lawyer's Association. She has served as a facilitator for the State Bar of Arizona Professionalism Course and other continuing legal education programs.

